ROLLING DOLLARS Gather No Interest

$ $ $ $

And interest is what makes dollars grow—safely.

Of course, if you have saved money, you have it on interest—it not in good securities, then certainly in the bank.

Surely you are not one of those who use shot bags, stockings, tin cans and pots as depositories. If you are, you'll eventually be sorry.

It's far better to be safe than sorry.

We pay 4 per cent interest—100 per cent SAFETY.

Letter From Rev. Rice

EDITOR, Editor;
I thought a great deal about the things left behind since I have been here and have thought perhaps they would like to hear from me. As I can not write a personal letter to them all I have decided that, with permission of the editor, I would write a few lines. We have been kindly received and cared for since we have been here. The parsonage did not own a parsonage until this year, and as the former pastor was single he was the first preacher's family to live there. The ladies worked hard to have it in order for us, and the pantry has been so well supplied that it has been necessary to buy very few provisions. In addition to what has already been sent in, a very liberal donation was given us this week.

I cannot forget the four pleasant years spent on the Appomattox circuit, and how kind the people were to me. Their kind expressions of appreciation did much to warm my heart for the work. When I think of the work there were few who knew me as I had been, that thought I could not stay twelve months. Sometimes it was with reluctance that I filled my appointment when I felt very poorly I felt that I had done all I could and seemed to get something out of it, however I did met with their approval. Many words of commendation have followed me here. I prize all this more highly than anything else they could have done for me. I trust that they may show my success by the same appreciation. I also greatly appreciate the courtesy shown me by the readers of the Times Virginian.

Yours truly, A. S. J. RICE.

In Memoriam

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, Thomas H. Dolan, who died one year ago today, December 22nd, 1919.

Sweet one is sleeping
Free from all pain,
Gave him not sweet spirit
Never again.

Numbers so soundly,
Let him sleep on;
Peaceness is ended
His troubles are gone.

Ask how he suffered
We moaned with pain
Long night hours
We soothed him in vain.

But in His mercy
Down from above
Spoke that whispered
Message of love.

Calm we hope to meet thee,
Some
The days of life are fled
In heaven with songs to greet thee
No farewell tears are shed.

Attractive Proposition for Young Women

Young women between eighteen and thirty years of age, having had at least one year of high school work, or its equivalent, may become trained nurses by entering the School of Nursing of the Medical College of Virginia, conducted at the Dooley and Memorial Hospitals, Richmond, Virginia, which school is registered by the Virginia State Board of Nurse Examiners and by the New York State Board of Regents Graduates receive a diploma from the college.

A three year course of training is offered Pupils receive their board, laundry, and room and are paid a liberal amount for maintenance A two weeks vacation is allowed during the first year of training, and three weeks during the second and third years.

Pupils are given the care of white patients only, and receive their theoretical instruction from members of the teaching staff of the Medical College of Virginia, and full-time graduate nurses. The course of training includes all branches of medicine and surgery, and is equal or superior to courses offered in other schools of nursing.

For further information address Miss Claire Jones, R N., Hospital Division, Richmond, Virginia.

Chocklett—Cheatham

Mr Zack E Cheatham and Miss Mamie Chocklett were united in marriage at Rustburg, Va., on the 18th instant. It was a quiet affair, but it was no surprise to their friends here The ceremony was performed by Baptist minister there. After the ceremony the couple took train for Richmond for a few days, and are now at home to their friends at Appomattox Hotel Harry Johnson was master of ceremonies, and after a trip to Brookneal, where the bride was visiting her brother, their troubles were ended. Miss Chocklett is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Rev G A Chocklett and Zack is one of our promising young farmers. Both are popular and have a host of friend s who join us in congratulations and good wishes

William Abbitt

William Abbitt, aged 17, youngest son of Mrs Julian Abbitt, widow of Dr. Julian Abbitt, died Saturday in Henderson, N. Navy stationed at Norfolk; Edward Abbitt of China, and Mrs Rose of Henderson, N C, where he recently went from Norfolk hospital in an effort to recuperate his health He had been a sufferer for the past several months with heart trouble The body was met by his former schoolmates of the Appomattox high school.

Good Move

In accordance with the American Legion's campaign for justice to disabled veterans of the World War, government officials, the Legion's National Commander and its committee on Hospitalization and Vocational Training, at a recent meeting in Washington, drafted a bill combining the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the public Health Service and the Rehabilitation Division of the Federal Board for Vocational Education in a single bureau of one department of the government under a single head. The measure, in general form, will be submitted to the present session of congress

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
